Medicines, &c &c.

He flitters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for Southern Trade, his experience-having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in the city of Raleigh -will enable him to give entire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Unconnected with any establishment in New-York, and de-350 voting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of Goods of every description, attending the auction 350 sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconveniences and expense of a trip to New York.

The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to all Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep 0 up their stocks by getting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconveniencies of a large amount of bills falling due about the same 280 time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction.

Merchants, and other persons, disposed to emp y erences, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New York, and in all instances he will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on 250 better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his 225 taste and judgment to insure future orders. His com-Drawings of the above numbers can be seen at the missions will be two and a halt per cent. Address A.
